

NOT ONLY SALE.

MEM offers its Customers the turnkey service.

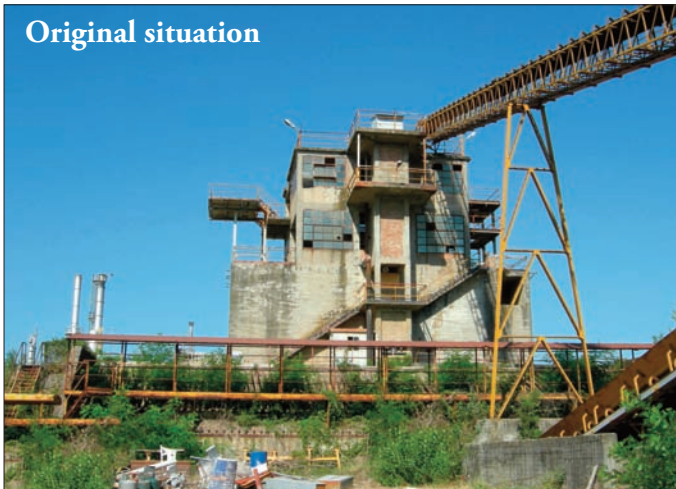

We take the responsibility for organising and managing post-production with our specifically Created division, dedicated to transport and assembly.

Using only specialised and qualified personnel, in the design and realisation, we are also able to re-condition old plants and supply them to the Customer with all the requested approvals, in compliance with the current standards.

Original situation

After the intervention of MEM

